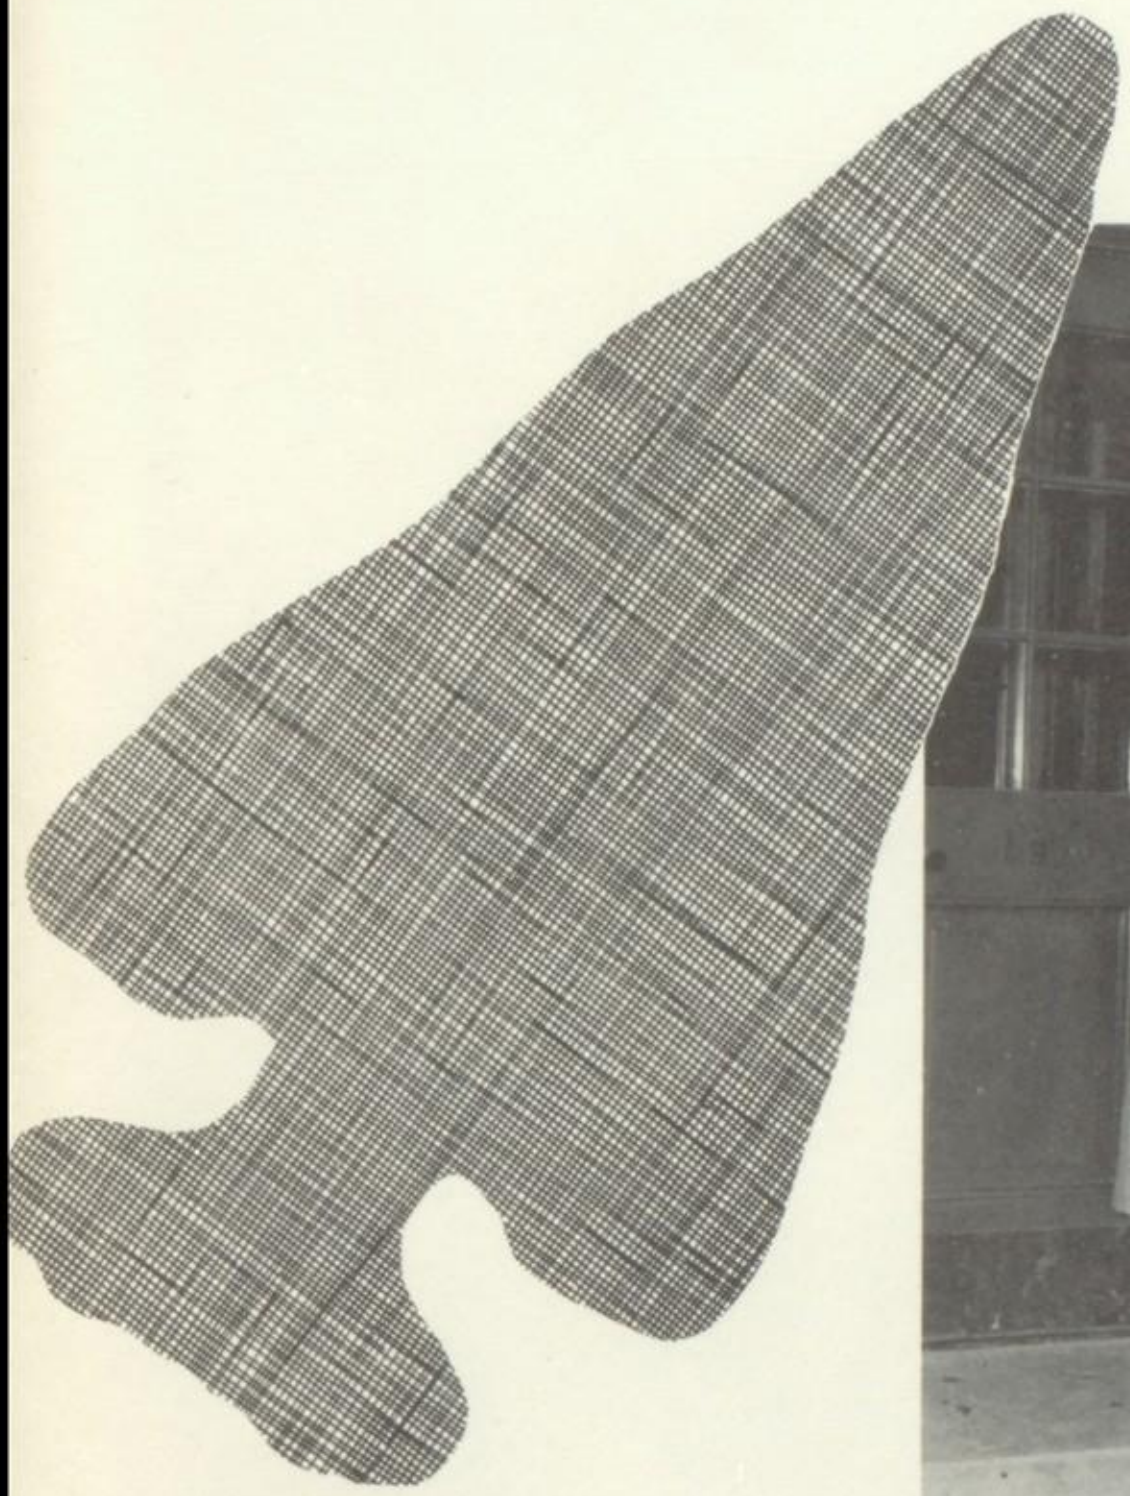
THE ARROWHEAD



1953

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF

SENECA-GORHAM-POTTER CENTRAL SCHOOL

GORHAM, N. Y.

ALMA MATER

Gorham, we salute thee,
With our song of praise.
We will fail thee never,
For long we will remember high school days.
Gorham, you have taught us
All our lives to hold
Steadfast hearts and ringing voices,
And to always work for Gorham
'Neath the green and gold.

We were green as Freshman
Exams seemed hard and long.
Then as brilliant Sophomores
We studied hard and soon were going strong.
Juniors, take it easy . . . . .
How the time does fly!
Then as Seniors we'll be leaving,
In our hearts forever grieving
Dear old Gorham High.

Schoolmates, stand together,
Do your part and try.
Fair or stormy weather,
Strive on to keep your standards always high.
Girls and boys, remember,
To your school be true.
When you leave your Alma Mater
Be a loyal son or daughter . . . . .
Gorham, here's to you!

CLASS POEM

Oh, we're the Class of '53
And one day the kids looked upon me
Make up a poem, make up a rhyme
Come on, come on, you've got the time
So I took my pen in hand
And these are the words, poor or grand.
First comes the Allen boy named Willy,
Boy he sure is a dilly.
Jane Austin comes next,
She reads from book and text.
Norma Bills never says scoot,
To the boy 'oft times called Hoot.
Then comes her Pulver friend named Jane,
She's always a friend and never a pain.
Hoot Frarey gave his Norma a ring,
We hope that good luck comes to you in everything.
Next comes our friend, Jo Perry
On her finger, a diamond, she does carry.
Alma Lambert is so clever,
On her clarinet, she plays each lever.
And here comes that Phillips named Rosie,
The girl who always looks so cozy.
Next comes Florence Clarke
She sings like a lark.
Charles Chase makes a dash into his Nash.
We hope that while he's driving,
He never has a crash.
Thorp Tomion knows how to pull a curtain,
And also how to drive the '37 Chevie
Of this much I am certain.
We have a rolling Stone named Lee,
My but she's a busy bee.
Shirley Christensen has a nickname of Shirl,
Whenever you're with this girl
You're always in a whirl.
Jim Van Wie from Canandaigua came,
Of skipping school, he makes a game.
Francis McGory has never been to Cuba,
But boy he sure can play the tuba.
(Sorry, that's all I could think of that would rhyme).
We have a Dolores, whose last name is Knopf,
She's our Student Council President,
And she fills us full of hope.
Next comes her friend named Pouline Neilsen
Whose nickname is Polly.
She's full of fun and very jolly.
Helen Hathorn is known for her driving,
Early or late, she's always arriving.
Roland Hoffman, with girls, had a day,
When he played the lead in the Junior Play.
Betty Miller, to the Navy, gave,
Her name to become a wave.
Beatrice Terwilliger will go
To Eastman School of Music, where,
She'll blow on her oboe.
We have a girl named Carol McWilliams,
Who always likes to dance,
On this particular subject, she talks, raves and rants.
Barbara Treadwell to Homemaking goes,
There she learns about food and clothes.
Mary Muckle, who's not contrary,
But a very good friend to know,
At this time I'm not sure
What she'll be or where she plans to go.
George MacDonald will always be remembered as Albert,
And for Dolores who is so cute and pert.
Barb Neilsen won the honors of our grade,
Last year as a Junior.
Too bad she didn't come from Penn Yan
Just a little sooner.
Helen Weeks is planning to be a nurse,
I know if she succeeds,
Her patients will all get better instead of worse.
David Keyser will long be remembered for his part,
In the Junior Play.
We certainly saw a change in him
On this eventful day.
Usually you see my name at the beginning
But tonight it's at . . . . . .

The End

CLASS HISTORY

Way back in September, 1949, we started off our Freshman year with forty-two members, under the guidance of Miss Brinsmaid and Mr. Shanklin. The class officers were Jim Van Wie, President; George MacDonald, Vice-President; Norman Oliver, Secretary; Helen Hathorn, Treasurer. Our Student Council representatives were Pat Adams and Francis McGory. A hayride was the social function that started the ball rolling. Along with the hayride came the class project of selling yellow socks with "GCS" printed on them. Becoming quite active in various activities of the school, we had eight members on the J.V. basketball team, five members on the J.V. cheerleading squad and two on the Varsity squad. The interclass basketball games proved to be very exciting, even though we lost. The girls also had a basketball team that beat Canandaigua Academy but later lost to Geneva. Jim Van Wie and Helen Hathorn were elected Lord and Lady at the Junior Prom this year.

As brilliant Sophomores, we were anxious "to get back in the groove" knowing we would get our class rings. With Mr. Kinyon and Miss Call as advisors, we elected George MacDonald, President; Alma Lambert, Vice-President; Jane Pulver, Secretary; Charles Chase, Treasurer; and Beatrice Terwilliger, Parliamentarian. Again Pat Adams was our Student Council representative, along with Wilbur Allen. The social hi-lite of the year was our Soph-Hop with the "Great Westerners" as the orchestra. Our money-raising project was a bake sale. As far as sports were concerned, we had one member on the Varsity team and six members on the J.V. basketball team. The Varsity cheerleading squad was made up of seven Sophomores and the J.V. squad consisted of two of our members.

Our Junior year was hi-lited with our first formal dance, "Moonlight and Roses." Miss Fuller and Mr. Kinyon were our advisors this year. We elected Earl Frarey, President; Norma Bills, Vice-President; Aletha Stone, Secretary; Dolores Knopf, Treasurer; Pat Adams, News Reporter. Our class was represented in the Student Council by Helen Hathorn and Wilbur Allen. Needless to say, the Junior Plays provided a lot of fun and entertainment. "His First Shave" was directed by Mr. Smingler, Senior High English teacher and "A Girl In Every Port" was directed by Miss Andreasen, Junior High English teacher. Of course, we were represented in many sports and activities. The Prince and Princess at the Junior Prom were Earl Frarey and Norma Bills. We were proud to have Francis McGory and George MacDonald at Boys' State. Barbara Nielsen received the award for the highest average.

Our Senior year is well on its way. Our first official act, as a Senior class, was the election of officers with Earl Frarey again as President; Dolores Knopf, Vice-President; Shirley Christensen, Secretary; Pouline Nielsen, Treasurer; Rose Phillips, News Reporter. Dolores Knopf was also elected President of Student Council with four fellow seniors as representatives. Our advisors for the year were Miss Fuller and Mr. Bills. The year's social activities included the annual Senior Play, "Dear Ruth," and the Senior Ball with "Winter Starlight" as the theme. Old Clothes Day was definitely a treat and proved to be very entertaining. We worked as busy as bees to put forth an annual that will be remembered throughout the years.

Now, as SENIORS, we'll be leaving, with our hearts forever grieving, Dear Old Gorham High!

CLASS PROPHECY

Hoot Frarey, owner of the Frarey Farm Foundation for Contented Cows, and his wife, the former Norma Bills, have invited the Class of 1953 to celebrate their annual square dance in their milking parlor in Aloquin, New York.

The time is June 22, 2053. Listen, is that a jet I hear? No, it's Jimmy Van Wie in his 1937 Hudson. He's home on furlough from Annapolis Naval Academy, with his instructor, Admiral David Keyser.

Mademoiselle Perry (Jo), the famous French hair stylist, is arriving with Jane Austin in her Jet Jaguar. Jane is a hostess in Ville Franche on the Riveria. Dolores Knopf and George MacDonald, who are in partnership with their Mac-Knopf Science Laboratory, inform us that they regret they are unable to leave their scientific inventions. They have just invented a new serum which enables people to live two hundred years. However, they have sent representatives of their lab and here they come now. Why, it's Pouline Nielsen, Mary Muckle and Helen Weeks.

Roland Hoffman, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and his secretary, Aletha Stone, arrived by jet plane last night and stayed overnight at the Frarey estate.

Shirley Christensen, who is just winding up a personal appearance tour by visiting Aloquin, has just completed the hit movie, "Good-bye, Sam". Voices are heard coming toward the barn. Look! It's Helen Hathorn and Jane Pulver. Helen tells us that she is a hostess at Artie Brown's and Jane is a hairdresser at Pierre's in New York City. Meanwhile, of course, she is still waiting for a certain sailor to come home. And speaking of the navy, here comes a couple of navy personnel, Betty Miller and Barbara Treadwell. They are still training at Great Lakes.

Who could be rolling into the driveway now but Rose Hall (Phillips) with Flossie Clarke as a passenger, seeing as how Flossie doesn't have her license yet. Rosie is a secretary at Robson Seed Farms on Mars and Flossie runs the elevator at the Clifton Sanitarium.

Wilbur (Willie) Allen has consented to dismount from his jet propelled tractor long enough to attend this square dance. With him comes another ex-Fergusonite, Charles Tomion, who is now a curtain puller at the Metropolitan Opera House.

The Secretary of Agriculture (Charles Chase) will not be here for this occasion. His secretary, Barbara Nielsen, has written us that, due to previous engagements on Pluto, they will be unable to come.

Here comes a Jet Rocket "88" no less. Naturally we already know who is behind the wheel. Hi, Pat Adams. Glad to have you aboard. We hear you are the New Jersey G.L.F. Manager's private secretary now on an assignment on Jupiter.

After taking roll call, I find that the only two who aren't here are Beatrice Terwilliger and Carol McWilliams. They will probably be coming any minute now. Bea is still teaching music at Metro and Carol is hostess at Roose's.

Now that all are accounted for, the excitement will begin. Francis McGory's band is here to furnish the music for this great occasion.

SENIOR PLAY

After long weeks of rehearsal, the Seniors, on the nights of November 21 and 22, presented their play, "Dear Ruth," a comedy in two acts by Norman Krasna. The story is about a 16 year old girl, Miriam (Norma Bills) Wilkens, who has been writing to Bill (Charlie Chase) Seawright, an Air Force Lieutenant who is stationed in Italy and signing her sister, Ruth's (Suzs Christensen) name to the letters. The plot develops as Ruth announces to her parents, Judge Harry (Rollie Hoffman) and Edith (Polly Nielsen) Wilkens, her engagement to Albert (Geage MacDonald) Kummer. Naturally, Albert is enraged when Bill arrives from overseas to woo Ruth. Lt. Seawright brings along his friend, Sgt. Chuck (Hoot Frarey) Vincent. When Martha (Rosie Phillips) Seawright, Bill's sister and former fiancee of Chuck's comes to the Wilkens' home, more comedy complications arise. Ever helpful Dora, the maid (Janie Pulver) and Harold Klobbermeyer, a sailor (David Keyser) provide more laughs.

Minor castastrophies occurred when "Edith" Nielsen developed laryngitis the day of the play and "Albert" MacDonald forgot to carry the all-important blueprints on stage and was slipped these by backstage help. Lines were forgotten and prompting was needed, but then we won't forget the time Mr. Smingler had trying to cast the role of Bill. Three boys tried this part before it was finally awarded to Charlie Chase.

Under the direction of Mr. John Smingler and student director, Pat Adams, all ended well and the senior play was termed a success by the audiences.

The bright spot of a season of basketball disappointment has been the fine showing of the Jay Vees. In spite of the fact that the team's strength was often depleted, due to absence or varsity service, the boys have rolled to six wins in ten games, losing twice in overtime thrillers. They have held a scoring edge over the opposition of 34 points. There are five sophomores on the starting combination and they show a good balance of size, speed, shooting ability and defense. If these boys can maintain the present rate of improvement, they will be a strong contender in the varsity race the next two seasons.

Eleven consecutive losses do not look impressive in the record books. Some consolation may be gained by the fact that the margin of loss in many of these games has been so small that one good defensive move or one good shot could have turned defeat into victory. The team has been especially sharp at times but has failed when the chips were on the line.

Whacky

The failure to win has been disappointing to the coaching staff, with early season predictions of a good year falling very short of expectations. The fact that none of the players has been able to rise to a natural position of floor general and carry the team over the rough spots has been an important factor. The second half collapse on so many occasions is indicative of poor conditioning. A team must be able to carry a full head of steam for the entire game to win the close ones.

Senior Captain Rollie Hoffman, Earl Frarey, Jim VanWie, George MacDonald, and Francis McGory will be lost by graduation. Returning starters, Darrell Weichenthal and Joe Frankovitch, will be flanked by Phil Freeman, Karl Perry, Lyman Wood and Babe Polmanteer. With some fine replacements moving up from the Jayvees, we will go out on the limb again and predict a winning season next year.
